

The conference will take place at the main building (Hauptgebäude) of the university, Hochschulstrasse 4, which is located near the main railway station. The university's main building is situated right next to the main station and can be reached easily using the elevators near track 13 up to the top floor (4).

You just have to enter the main building – the further way will have signs.

For emergencies short before or during the conference you may call the following number: +41 (0)77 429 41 19
